The Ohio penitentiary contains 1,364 convicts.

The snow at Holland, Mich., is twenty inches deep.

The epizootic has broken out among the horses at Columbus, O.

WASHINGTON Territory has passed a law granting woman suffrage.

NASHVILLE is to have a permanent exposition with a capital of $300,000.

HALL'S Safe and Lock Company is to be removed from Cincinnati to Hamilton, Ohio.

SENATOR BECK is at Washington. He is very confident Mr. Carlisle will be elected Speaker and does not think Mr. Randall will be seriously considered in the contest.

Horses pulled the plug of a barrel of sorghum in front of W. H. Bagley's store, Sunday, and made themselves to all the sweetness therein except some ten gallons.—Ashland Independent.

Nothing extraordinary in that. If they had been Maysville hogs they would have taken all the molasses, carried off the barrel, and called around early next morning for another one.

STORY'S marble statue of Chief Justice Marshall, for which members of the Philadelphia Bar contributed $20,000, and Congress appropriated similar sum, is expected to reach Washington early next month. It will be placed somewhere in the Capitol grounds.

A St. Paul telegram says: "Advices from all parts of the northwest show the thermometer ranging from 15° to 40° below zero. A strong wind is blowing but no snow. All trains delayed on account of the wind. Navigation was practically suspended here for several days. The river has closed."

AN EXCHANGE says: "The practice of dressing boys in short pants, in obedience to fashion, (and little girls in short skirts may be included) is a fruitful source of disease. Their legs get cold, driving the blood to the head, and leaving the little fellows easy victims to diphtheria and other diseases of the throat and lungs."

THE PRESIDENTS of a number of leading banks have just given to the public their views on the subject of a bankruptcy law. Without exception they all agree to a national law of bankruptcy of some kind is necessary to the commercial welfare of the community. This opinion appears to be well nigh universal among trade organizations and business men.

THE process of depopulation in Ireland goes steadily forward. The loss from death and emigration greatly exceeds the births. The decrease for the year 1882, according to the report of Registrar-General, was 58,988. As if this were not enough the British Government proposes to further "assist emigration" this year to the extent of 200,000 souls. They are to be mainly consigned to Canada, and the Canadian journals have commenced to protest.

THE Philadelphia Times says: The slaveholders who are anxiously figuring on the possible surplus revenue should bring their mathematical genius to bear on the members of Congress by a recommendation to repeal all internal taxes. That would solve the surplus question and dismiss several thousand office-holders to the peaceful pursuits of private life besides. That there is too much money collected in the way of taxes and duties is apparent to everybody. Abolishing the internal revenue taxes doesn't involve any fine figure work on the part of anybody and it would reduce the revenues to a point where the surplus would not bother anybody and where the river and harbor and public building trustees would have no plausible excuse for pushing their questionable schemes. The remedy for too much money is so simple that it doesn't require much of a mathematician to find it out.

Read Your Policies.

A suit has been decided by the Supreme Court of Georgia that has set the inhabitants of that State very generally to overhauling their life insurance policies. A citizen of Macon twelve years ago took out what he understood to be a ten-year endowment policy in a southern company. During this interval he had been stinting himself to pay (presumably into the hands of an untrustworthy agent) an extraordinary premium, only to find at last that he had an ordinary life policy and to be told by the court that ordinary diligence would have enabled him, at any time, to have ascertained that fact. This is a warning to people in all quarters to read their insurance policies. Insurance agents, sometimes, may not be worthy of trust, when the companies they represent are. Besides, it is likely that a good many policies, if they were read before they were signed, would never be taken out at all. Some of them are fearfully and wonderfully worded.

NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

BRACKEN.

The Bridgewater correspondent of the Chronicle says: Alfred McCord found a very fine specimen of Indian pistol on his father's farm last week. Found many graves and battle-fields and around this place, one would think this was once the abiding place of a large number of Indians.

Married, at Augusta, Mr. Charles Blades and Miss Maggie Nuding.

Chronicle: In a single day's hunt H. C. Lier and J. H. Wilson, of Augusta killed eighty birds.

Chronicle: Mr. Hanson Penn Diltz, of this city, has just finished a silk quilt containing over 12,000 hexagon pieces smaller than a silver dime, one third of them being silk velvet.

FLEMING. Times: Joseph Stickrod killed a bald eagle that measured seven feet from tip to tip of wings. It had just killed one of his keys, and was making a meal of it.

Times: Two months ago C. M. Lee bought his mother's farm, paying $500 for it, and last week he sold the same farm to James Jones for $600. Who will say that Fleming county bird is not advancing.

BROWN COUNTY, OHIO.

Bee and Times: Lon Loken has removed with his family to Huntington, W. Va.

Bee and Times: Constable Sinton arrested a man who had been robbing the Thomas W. H. on Eagle Creek, last March, but Sinton made his escape from the Sheriff's house at Ripley. He is supposed to have been in the Kentucky penitentiary.

The slender suit of Lucinda S. Melton against Samuel Purdum was decided in favor of the plaintiff, who got a verdict of $100.

Fair and Honest Women.

Miss Hattie Crocker, who is accompanying Lord and Lady Waterlow on their journey round the world, is an heiress to $40,000.

Nothing extraordinary in that. If they had been Maysville hogs they would have taken all the molasses, carried off the barrel, and called around early next morning for another one.

According to the London World says: "The statement that Mrs. Mackay, the wife of the bonanza silver king, was the largest bidder for the Porter Rhodes diamond, is without foundation. Mr. Porter Rhodes went to show the diamond to Mrs. Mackay, but nothing transpired as to possible purchase, although the lady in question likes handsome jewelry. Even to the wife of the millionaire, Mr. Mackay, the purchase of a gem costing $300,000 requires reflection and consultation with her lord and master, who is at the present moment in 'the States.'

According to the London World the eldest son of a well-known Roman Catholic, is smitten with the charms of Miss Eva Mackay. In this case, however, it is not so much the money as the young lady herself who is charming, but who at the present moment seems more inclined to become a man than a wife, though the suitor is her apparent to a peerage. The young gentleman in question has recently left Paris for a tour in America, whither he has gone to gain the necessary courage for going through the fearful ordeal of asking mamma. The question, at the present moment among the gossips of society in Paris is, will Miss Eva Mackay choose a prospective English coronet or the veil of a Sacre Coeur nun?

He is a great big boy, he is a great big boy! He is a great big boy! or more, I guess; it gave me one particular care. I loved him; I adored him; she was fond of him; he was fond of her; in the autumn air, I went into the domain of my girl. We talked of love, I was fond of her; we went down to the gate to spoon, beneath the gleam of her roses. Moon, I pressed a kiss upon her lip, it was sweet; I gave a smile, on the other he came, of his house; the smile, I felt a pressure of more and quick, so sudden that it made me shudder. Ten feet into the air I flew, and dropped into the horse; I was two when my mother and man I never could make love to; he wore it isn't a mudd fun — a boot weighed almost a ton.

Fasting for Science and Religion.

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—Joseph R. Dresser, Elizabeth, N. J., a fastidious, says he is making the attempt in the interest of science and to prove his faith in God, whom he had promised not to eat anything for forty days. He claims to have fasted for twenty-one days at his home in Belgium. He says he goes to the church every morning. He smokes three or four times a day and rinses his mouth out with a little water. He says he will prolong his fast as long as possible, but will not endanger his life.

ED. MYALL, the wagon man
Has firmly made the stand,
That when Old Kris goes on his route,
He's going to be on hand.
He says when baby rises up
And toddles o'er the floor,
It's going to find tucked in his sock
A reaper or a mower.

FANS have been ordered in, and skates are now at the front.

With a full determination to do your whole duty, go you churchward to-morrow.

Ma. WYATT CREAMY, a useful citizen of East Maysville, died last night after a short illness.

Mr. BEN. HUFF is building a neat double frame house in East Maysville for Mr. W. W. Ball.

FIFTY thousand pounds of hemp were sold at Lexington a few days ago for $5.75 per hundred.

The illuminated dial of the new town clock does not shine as brightly as it ought. Maybe it needs greasing.

The lost watch recently advertised in the BULLETIN, was returned to the owner within an hour after the paper was issued.

READ Morrison & Kackley's several advertisements elsewhere. They have just received some new and beautiful goods.

Do no fail to read all the new advertisements. Our merchants mean business plain and simple, and you should inform yourself as to what they propose to do.

Rev. J. C. Howes, presiding elder of the Covington and Maysville district of the M. E. Church, will preach to-morrow morning and evening at the M. E. Church on Third street.

It is said to be a good plan to burn a little sulphur in the cellar occasionally. The fumes sweeten the air and kill the germs which taint the butter and meat, and they will do no harm in any sanitary way.

A Chicago physician announces that "swell-head," the new cattle disease, is contagious, and can be communicated to man. This will be unpleasant news to gentlemen who have cultivated the disease in the old way.

"Pic album parties" are fashionable in Texas.—Courier-Journal.

We would like to see the party that could put a Maysville pig into an album. An attempt to do it would find the album inside of the pig on the shortest kind of notice.

One of our leading merchants desires to buy the verse department of the BULLETIN, in the interest of his business, and although he is willing to pay a high price for it, the offer is declined with thanks.

The Kentucky Central train, due at Lexington last night at seven o'clock, was thrown from the track near the Louisville and Nashville depot in that city. The express coach was badly damaged, but no person was hurt.

Mr. D. D. SPALDING, U. S. Revenue Agent, is in the city, and has made an examination of the Maysville office. He speaks in very complimentary terms of Mr. Phister's management, and says no other office in Kentucky ranks better.

SECURE your seats for the Chanfrau entertainments at the Opera House on Monday and Tuesday evenings. The box sheet is at Harry Taylor's news depot. The ladies' matinee is announced for Tuesday afternoon. Don't miss the opportunity to see these eminent artists.

A DAY or two ago an old sow walked into the hall at Dr. J. T. Strode's residence on Third street, and coolly took possession. He is constantly annoyed by visitations of this kind, and there is no remedy for it except by voting the hog out of town. Will the people do it?

The following marriage licenses have been issued in Brown county, Ohio, since our last report:

W. L. Sullivan and Mary F. Perry, Edgar L. Martin and Florence B. Gardner, John L. Cook and Zena Burnerover, Stephen J. Jones and Elizabeth A. Reed, John C. Dean and Sarah E. Hedley, S. P. Hawthorne and Mary E. Baldwin, Charles Pabst and Elizabeth Troutman.

PERSONALS.

Judge Robert Bowman and wife, of St. Louis, are the guests of Miss Mattie Power, of East Maysville.

Mr. Tim Hierley, who has been connected with the Clark County Democrat for some time past, is at home again.

Master Will Green, son of Mr. Thomas M. Green, who has been very sick of malarial fever, we are pleased to announce, is better.

The Churches.

Services will be held as usual at St. Patrick's church to-morrow.

Rev. S. H. Chester will preach to-morrow morning at Washington Hall. Subject: "Christ Tempted of the Devil."

There will be preaching at the Christian Church, in Washington, by Rev. A. N. Gilbert, on Sunday afternoon, at 3:15, if the weather is fair at 2:15.

Rev. A. N. Gilbert will, on Sunday night, at the Christian Church, resume his lectures on "The Harmony Between Science and Revelation." These have both been made objects of skeptical attack, and the justice of these attacks will be examined. The lecture will be illustrated by a diagram specially prepared by Mr. Gilbert, intended to exhibit the exact geographical location of the Garden of Eden. Below will be found a syllabus of the lecture. Mr. Gilbert will also preach in the morning.

SYLLABUS.

Man not a development from the ape—he did not begin existence as a savage—the oldest known skull averages with those of to-day—science traces all races to one geographical origin—where was Eden?—not all a garden—identification of its rivers—the Persian gulf—explanation of the diagram—the beauty of the garden—some rectifications of Milton's picture of Eden—the thorn and thistle difficulty—is the story of the full a childish narrative or an absurd myth? an analysis of the temptation—an epidemic of all temptation through all time—the question of inheritance—the final voice of mercy and blessing stills all others.
